

The Carolinas Communication Annual, the peer-reviewed, state journal published by the Carolinas Communication Association, invites the submission of scholarly articles for its 2011 volume. While articles by authors in the Carolinas and about topics relevant to the Carolinas and the surrounding region are certainly welcomed, the call is open to ALL authors from around the nation, and to a wide range of topics from multiple methodologies and perspectives within the larger communication/media studies disciplines.

Articles should be no longer than 4000 words in length and should follow the latest editions of either MLA, Chicago, or APA style manuals. Authors should submit their essays electronically (in Word format) to the editor at jason.black@ua.edu by April 1, 2011. Please include author identification information in the text of the email only.
